

FAST TRACK TO PASW STATISTICS

■ Duration: 1 day ■ Level: Intermediate

Target Audience

Those with experience of earlier versions of PASW Statistics, or other similar statistical packages. Alternatively, those with a thorough understanding of general data management/analysis packages in a windows environment, and who require a fast introduction to the basics of PASW Statistics Base.

Prerequisites

Keyboard and mouse skills. Experience of working in the Windows environment and an understanding of key Windows features. Experience of using data manipulation/analysis tools is also essential.

Overview

The course logically guides you through the fundamentals of using PASW Statistics Base and is structured so as to provide effective training in data modification, data analysis and data presentation.

Course Content

- Introducing PASW Statistics
- Summarising Individual Variables
- Modifying Data Values: Recode
- Modifying Data Values: Compute
- Describing Multiple Variable Relationships
- Selecting Subsets of Cases
- Creating and Editing Charts

Products used: PASW Statistics Base

